Dripping with resin glands, Lung Candy Genetics' latest phenodrop, Phamous Amos, is a hash makers dream. With a multi-layered aroma of swee/musky cookie dough with deep round notes of kushy fresh forest floor after a rain, this deep red-magenta laden flower produces on the high side of weight spectrum. Fast growing, Phamous Amos responds well to standard topping, producing abundant flower sites. The effect from this flower is wonderful pain relief and comfort from head-to-toe while still remaining mentally active.
